Confession of Faith

"There comes a time in the affairs of men when they must prepare to defend not their homes alone, but the tenets of faith and humanity on which their churches, their governments and their very civilization are founded. The defense of religion, of democracy and of good faith among nations is all the same fight. To save one, we must now make up our minds to save all."

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

THE BILL OF RIGHTS

Article I

CONGRESS shall make no law respecting on establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Article II

A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Article III

NO soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Article IV

THE right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Article V

NO person shall be held to answer for a capital or other infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a Grand Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service, in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subjected for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

Article VI

IN all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which districts shall have previously been ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

Article VII

IN suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States than according to the rules of the common law.

Article VIII

EXCESSIVE bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Article IX

THE enumeration in the Constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Article X

THE powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

PRAY for the WELFARE of the GOVERNMENT

Allegiance to God and Country

We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands—one nation indivisible with Liberty and Justice for all.

We thank Thee for the Divine guidance granted unto those men, who in Convention assembled, created the Constitution of the United States . . . men who safeguarded for posterity the unalterable tenets of the religious freedom . . . freedom of speech . . . of the press . . . the freedom to peaceably assemble.

Almighty God, who has given us this land for our freedom, we humbly beseech that we may ever prove ourselves mindful of our duties and prepared to cooperate in the work and aims of our fellow-Americans. Bless all the lands with sound learning, and pure purpose. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many countries. Endow with the spirit of wisdom those to whom, in Thy name, we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home among all classes, as an example for all the nations of the world.

May the words of our prayer and the meditation of our heart be acceptable before Thee, O Lord, our rock and redeemer.
