MARCH 28 – APRIL 1, 2024

WELCOME
TO YESHIVA

A Message From Our President

Welcome to the 31st Annual Red Sarachek Basketball Tournament. Each year, Yeshiva University welcomes hundreds of students, parents, and friends to our campus for a week of fun and competitive play capped off by a meaningful Shabbat experience. We believe wholeheartedly in the ability of sports to develop leaders, hone skills and bring people together and it is our distinct pleasure to host this wonderful tournament. As the week begins, we wish you much success and enjoyment.

Yeshiva University is the premier Jewish higher education institution that stands at the epicenter of a global movement, empowering and producing tomorrow's leaders. Our graduates are both deeply rooted and forward focused as they look to capitalize on the challenges and opportunities of contemporary society.

This week you will have a chance to taste a little bit of our broader Yeshiva University experience. I am sure you will find it both enjoyable and enriching.

We hope you will have a pleasant week and we look forward to seeing you back on campus.

Guarding the Floor with #4

Written by MTA Senior and Varsity player, Tzvi Sorotzkin

When I came to MTA as a freshman, I was overwhelmed by the size of the campus and did not know what to expect. Would I ever learn my way around? Would I be able to make new friends? Would the “concrete jungle” ever feel like home? Would MTA be a warm and friendly place? These were some of the questions and worries I had when I first started.

From the moment I opened the big bronze doors, (that was a struggle as a freshman!), I felt the warmth of the rebbeim greeting me and the boys walking alongside me. I felt a part of the MTA family right away! There is a brotherhood that exists here, and I have continued to see and experience it over my four years.

One of the programs that helps freshmen to acclimate to MTA is the Cub2Lion mentoring program, which places a small group of freshmen under the guidance of a Senior Lion. My senior mentor was Shai Friedman, a current student at YU, who helped guide me and serve as a great role model. Now I am a Lion and able to guide my own group of freshmen!

The rebbeim at MTA are incredible. As a yeshiva, MTA starts the day with Torah learning, which helped develop me as a person and a Ben Torah. Learning Torah is a gift from Hashem that the rebbeim at MTA take very seriously. The relationships we form with our rebbeim last well beyond our time in the classroom.

The general studies teachers at MTA are careful to tailor their teaching to each student and prepare him for future challenges. They make sure that no student falls through the cracks.

For four years at MTA, I have been on the basketball team. Being on the team allowed me to form bonds with my teammates who were not necessarily guys that I would have gotten to know. The team practices, games and camaraderie give me something to look forward to every day.

I'd like to take this opportunity on behalf of the MTA basketball team, and everyone at the yeshiva, to welcome all the athletes, coaches, faculty members, parents and fans who traveled from near and far to compete in this iconic tournament. We are excited to have you here and look forward to showing you what we're all about—both on and off the court!

YESHIVA LOCKER ROOMS

Given the number of teams in the tournament and our desire to provide each team with a private area for changing and for team meetings, we utilize four separate locker/changing areas.

- Locker Rooms A & B
- Classroom next to the trainer's office
- Room L-03

Locker room assignments will be posted each morning and will be readily available. Each team will be given access to their locker room at halftime of the previous game for the duration of the game.

Following the conclusion of your game, please vacate the locker room as quickly as possible so that it will be available for the next team. Event staff will be available to let you into your locker rooms before your game, at halftime, and at the conclusion of your game. Locker rooms will be locked at all other times.

Each participant should bring his own lock to use for the duration of the tournament. Schools will be responsible for any damages incurred during use.

Team members are not to use the pool or weight room.

“The Coach” Bernie “Red” Sarachek

It's been 45 years since I played my last game
And since then my life has never been the same
Yet I often look back and still can remember
When basketball was my passion from January through December
That magical time still resides in my head
The excitement and honor of playing for “Red”
The boyhood dreams of basketball glory
Became lessons for life in a wonderful story
We were taught by legends, whose praise I still sing
Like Hank Rosenstein, Nat Militzok, Bobby Kelly, Dolly King
They ingrained in us never to commit the big sin
By giving less than your best, because “quitters never win”
When boys grew into manhood, because we had learned
Success can be achieved, but only when it is earned

Carnesecca and Rossini would sit and watch in awe
As Yeshiva kids ran “C plays,” “pick and roll,” and especially “back door”
“Red”also taught us to love and honor the game
So it’s sad, but yet true, that things aren’t the same
There was no “trash talking,” “slash the throat,” or “in your face”
It was played as a game marked by skills, “smarts”and grace
The values and lessons we learned from these men
Can never be duplicated in gymnasiums again
But give credit where it’s due, it was “Red”and he alone
Who led by example, and thus set the tone
No one worked harder, or suffered defeat more
But he taught us to persevere, by the smile that he wore
Always forgiving the mistakes that we made
What mattered most to “Red,”was how hard we had played
“Winning isn’t everything,” Lombardi was wrong!
Never dog it, “play with pride,” that was Red’s song
We learned life is like sports, there’s always a test
But you’ve already succeeded if you’ve given your best
“Be unselfish,” “be a man,” “go without the ball”
These were in retrospect, the greatest lessons of all
For they exemplify life, and the values we daily use
Be we Black, White or Christians, Protestants or Jews
College players and professionals, he was father to all
No player of his would ever say, “Just give me the damn ball”
And over the years I’d often reminisce
That these were the times I truly did miss
He insisted we study hard, and our futures to plan
For there are no easy “lay-ups,” as boy becomes man
We are shaped by the values we are constantly taught
But unlike precious jewels, they cannot be bought
We learn them from people, by whom we are led
And we were the lucky ones because we had “Red”
The record will show, and with this I’ll end
There was never a finer coach, nor ever a better friend

With respect and love,

Abbey Gewirtz, Yeshiva University, 1951–1955
