

DO YOU KNOW THE YU ERUV?

The Mount Sinai Eruv and YU Eruv are maintained independently.

- The YU Eruv allows one to safely carry from 183rd to 190th Street (from Laurel Hill Terrace to Wadsworth Avenue). Only parts of 182nd Street are within the Eruv, and so carrying on 182nd Street is not recommended.
- The east side of the YU Eruv is the fence along Laurel Hill Terrace extending to the playground. One may carry into the playground.
- The YU Eruv extends to the apartment buildings on Fort George Hill. This extension of the Eruv should only be used under extenuating circumstances.
- One may cross from the YU Eruv to the Mount Sinai Eruv between 183rd Street and 187th Street.
- Gorman Park, Fort Tryon Park and Margaret Corbin Circle are not included in either Eruv.
