

How to resolve Registration Error Messages in Self Service

Error Message	Solution
Campus Restriction	Course is restricted to a campus different than the one you are enrolled in. Contact advisor for permission to register.
Class Restriction	Course is restricted to a class different than the one you are enrolled in (i.e Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior). Contact advisor for permission to register.
Closed Section	Course is at capacity. Please find a section with available seats. If there are no additional sections with available seats, contact advisor to see if there may be a seat available for you in this section.
Cohort Restriction	Course is restricted to a program different than the one you are enrolled in. Please find a section open for students in your program. If there are no additional sections, contact advisor to see if there may be a seat available for you in this section.
College Restriction	Course is restricted to a college different than the one you are enrolled in (i.e YC vs SSSB). Please find a section open for students in your College. If there are no additional sections, contact advisor to see if there may be a seat available for you in this section.
Corequisite (i.e. SWK 6536C) required	You must register for two courses (i.e. CRN 12345 & 67890) simultaneously.
Dean's Approval	Requires Dean's approval before registering for the course. Contact the Dean of your program.
Field of Study Restriction	Course is restricted to a major different than the one you are enrolled in. Please find a section open for students in your major. If there are no additional sections, contact advisor to see if there may be a seat available for you in this section.
Invalid Level for course	Course is restricted to a level of study that differs from than yours (Undergraduate vs Graduate or Doctoral). Contact advisor for permission to register.
Level Restriction	Course is restricted to a level of study that differs from than yours (Undergraduate vs Graduate or Doctoral). Contact advisor for permission to register.
Maximum Hours Exceeded	You have exceeded the allowable credit number of credits for registration this semester. Please drop a course or contact advisor and Office of the Registrar for permission to register.
Not Permitted To Register At This Time	Please check your registration time. You can only register within your program's registration window.

Prerequisite, corequisite or test score restriction. Check course comments or contact advisor	You must have prerequisite, corequisite and/or test score to register for this course. Contact advisor for permission to register.
Program Director's Approval	Requires Program Director's approval before registering for the course. Contact Program Director for permission to register.
Program Restriction	Course is restricted to a program different than the one you are enrolled in. Please find a section open for students in your program. If there are no additional sections, contact advisor to see if there may be a seat available for you in this section.
Section is a duplicate of an existing registration	You are currently registered for a different section of the course. Please drop the section and contact the Office of the Registrar.
Time Conflict	The course you're registering for conflicts with a course you're already registered for. You must drop the other course or if you need a time overlap, contact your advisor.
You have holds which prevent registration	There are hold(s) on your record which prevent registration.