

International Criminal Court

YUNMUN XXXIV

Dear ICC Delegates,

It is our honor to welcome you to YUNMUN XXXIV! Our names are Micah Eizen and Rivka Krause and we are excited to serve as your co-chairs of the United Nations International Criminal Court (ICC) at this year's conference! Here's a little bit about each of us:

My name is Micah Eizen. After being born and raised in Detroit, Michigan and attending Yeshivat Akiva - Farber Hebrew Day School, I studied for two years in the Old City of Jerusalem at Yeshivat Orayta. I am currently a Junior at the Sy Syms School of Business with an undecided major. I am a member of the Business Ethics Society and the Data Analytics Club, as well as a member of the Zoology Club. This year's conference will be my fifth YUNMUN, three times as a delegate and last year as the Administrative Assistant for ICC, yet I think this year's conference will be the best one yet!

My name is Rivka Krause. I'm from Teaneck, NJ and I'm a graduate of Ma'ayanot Yeshiva High School and then Midreshet Amudim. I am a Junior at Stern College studying Political Science and possibly minoring in Creative Writing. Outside of YUNMUN, I am the co-president of both the Political Law Society and the Pre Law Society, I write opinions for the school paper, and am a member of the Beren Campus Student Council. Last year I was Assistant Chair of WHO which was my first experience with YUNMUN and I am looking forward to my second year at YUNMUN!

The ICC is the permanent tribunal that investigates and moderates international disputes and criminal cases between nations, as outlined by the Rome Statute. Our committee functions differently than other committees at the conference. ICC delegates will have the opportunity to take on a role as a prosecutor, defense lawyer, or witness as they investigate an international crime, allowing them to explore all aspects of international law. Over the course of the conference, you will prepare for, and execute, the mock trial case that will be provided for you.

While writing your position papers, please be sure to provide citations. All papers will be submitted through Turnitin and under no circumstances will plagiarism be tolerated. We look forward to meeting you all and can't wait to watch the case unfold! Feel free to email us with any questions, thoughts, comments, opinions, or just to introduce yourself and say hello! You can reach us at meizen@mail.yu.edu and rkrause2@mail.yu.edu.

All the Best,

Micah Eizen and Rivka Krause
